Prophetic Lectures Open Sunday Night

Pastor Glenn Goffar and his evangelistic group will begin a new series of prophetic lectures Sunday night at 8 p.m.

The screen illustrated studies will be held in "Prophecy Auditorium," in the Seventh-Day Adventist Church, corner of Acacia and Sonoma.

Pastor Goffar's lecture Sunday will be titled "The Living Faith of Jesus." The following Sunday evening, March 16, he will be speaking on the subject "The Dead Faith of Devils."

Because of the large interest in her illustrated studies, Mrs. Marjorie Siple will be speaking each Wednesday evening in the same Auditorium. Her subject March 12 will be "Vital Message from Outer Space."

The Henry Meissners will lead out each evening with their "Music Meditations" from 7:30 to 8 p.m. Orpha and Henry Meissner have traveled extensively throughout Europe with their musical talent, with renditions on the Organ, Violin and Marimba.

An additional attraction is the three-volume set of books "The Bible Speaks" which will be given to those attending 12 of the next 16 lectures. They contain over 800 pages covering over 150 Bible subjects. The set is valued at $9.

ELDER GLENN GOFFAR ... Leads Meeting

Rev. Alexander Will Talk About 'Great Appeal'

"The Great Appeal" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. W. F. Alexander, pastor of the First Baptist Church, 158th and Brighton, Gardena, this Sunday at 11 a.m. services.

A duet by Miss Amy Castillo and Brydon Alexander will be presented during the service. Junior Church will be held at the same time, under the leadership of Mrs. Lena Crader and Miss Alma Lowen.

Sunday school for all ages will meet at 9:45 a.m. under the direction of J. M. McElyea, superintendent. This service will be followed by classes divided into the primary, junior, and adult departments.

The topic in the adult class will be "Evangelism in the Home Community," led by Edgar Rayner. The junior department, under Mrs. Raymer, will study the topic, "Prayer." Primary youngsters, taught by Miss Castillo, will learn about "God Expects Us to be Kind."

Miss Castillo's class is working toward Sunday school pins for requirements of the teacher.

Narbonne Youth Planning Trip To Mountains

Forty young people of the Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church will make a trip to the mountains on Friday for a winter retreat with fellowship and recreation.

The local church will cooperate with other Southern Baptist churches in the area in a Music Week. Training will be offered in voice, choir, directing, and instrument use. The faculty will include Joseph Daniels, director of music and education for the Los Angeles Area; Mrs. Woodrow Rosecrans from the Crenshaw Baptist Church of Torrance. She has been referred to as the outstanding pianist of this area.

The Rev. Robert A. Wells will continue the series of sermons on "The Challenge of the Bible." This Sunday at 11 he will speak on the subject "Saved and Certain of It." "This is a message that seeks to give the assurance man needs in this uncertain age. This is a message with promises from God's Book to give that assurance," the local pastor stated.

Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. the pastor will speak at the first anniversary service of their mission in Hermosa Beach. The local church has been invited to have a part in this event that marks the starting of their second year.

REV. JOHN R. DUVALL ... Guest Speaker

Pre-Easter Evangelistic Services Set

The Council of Administration of Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church, 3343 W. 174th St., Torrance, has voted to invite the Rev. John Duvall to conduct a series of pre-Easter evangelistic services to begin March 23 and continue through April 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. John Duvall is an active pastor of the Palms EUB Church in Los Angeles. He has been an active pastor for 16 years, graduating cum laude from the Bible Theological Seminary of Los Angeles (affiliated with BIOLA, now Talbot Seminary), receiving the Th.B. degree. He has been conference youth director in both the Oregon conference and the California conference.

The Rev. Monrad Bergesen is pastor of Hope Church.

Dr. Brumfield to Discuss 'Six Miracles of Calvary'

Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor of the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, will begin a series of messages leading to Easter, as on successive Sundays he presents the "Six Miracles of Calvary."

In the 11 a.m. service this Sunday Dr. Brumfield's topic will be "Midnight At Noon." In the evening worship hour at 7:30 p.m. the sermon subject is entitled "The Real Meaning of Calvary." Toddler care and crib-nursery are available at all stated church services. A junior church service convenes during the morning worship hour. Baptist training groups for all ages meet each Sunday evening at 8:30 p.m. Sunday school for all age groups at 9:45 a.m.

Attend Sing

Following the evening worship this week the senior high and college age groups will attend the Conservative Baptist Assn. sing being held in the Compton Baptist Church, Tamarind and Myhr Sts., Compton.

Church activities for the week include:

Lenten Rites Scheduled at St. Andrew's

"Jesus and the Family of Today" is the theme of the Wednesday evening Lenten services being held at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., according to the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, pastor.

Devotional services are held from 7:30 to 8:15 p.m. in the church, with religious instruction for younger children on the theme, "Learning to Know Jesus," at the same time. Mrs. Jessica Jelf, director of religious instruction, is in charge of the youngsters in the religious education building.

Preceding the services, a family supper is held at 6:30 p.m. in the parish hall. Mrs. Robert Sleeth Sr., president of the Women's Auxiliary, is in charge of the dinners, with Mrs. Lloyd Goddard acting as coordinator between the guilds and the Sunday school.

A different guild plans and serves the dinner, assisted by Sunday school children.

'Man' Named As Topic for This Sunday

"Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace." These words of the Psalmist (37:37) are the Golden Text and keynote the Lesson-Sermon on "Man" in all the Christian Science churches on Sunday.

In a selection from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy asks the question, "What is man?" and answers, "Man is not matter; he is not made up of brain, blood, bones, and other material elements. The Scriptures inform us that man is made in the image and likeness of God. Matter is not that likeness. The likeness of Spirit cannot be so unlike Spirit" (p. 475).

A Bible passage from Genesis says of creation and of man in God's image. "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth... And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness" (1:1, 26).

Mrs. Wiegand Gets Job

Shirley Austin Wiegand, former occupational therapist at Harbor General Hospital, now holds the same position at Merritt Hospital, Oakland. She worked here before her marriage last July to Robert Wiegand, Oakland businessman.
